Одни в 20-х считали его выразителем бури и натиска нового времени (“наконец-то появилась пролетарская музыка”), другие — апологетом буржуазного искусства, чуть ли не классовым врагом, в наши дни одни называют его авангардистом, на полстолетие опередившим свое время (ведь его музыка 20-х звучит так, будто она написана сегодня), другие — композитором, который писал народные хоры и песни. Одни утверждали, что у него бешеный характер, опасались открыто вступать с ним в конфликт, другие восхищались его обаянием, чувством собственного достоинства, рыцарской порядочностью, добротой. Он мог позволить себе озорную шутку на забаву окружающим и тут же перейти на великосветскую чопорность и французский язык, раскованно веселиться с друзьями и взнуздывать себя вслед за этим железной уздой самодисциплины и неустойчивой работоспособности.

Так кто же он — Александр Васильевич Мосолов?

Загадки его творческого явления в русской музыке советского периода и его личности — могучей, неординарной, не вмещающейся в привычные обывательские мерки — еще придется разгадывать. Ведь после баталий вокруг его имени и творчества в 20-х последовал полувековой период общественного неприятия и забвения, крах мощного творческого взлета, репрессии 30-х и, несмотря ни на что, возрождение в новом творческом облике.

Наследие его велико, но не изучено. В последние годы предпринимаются лишь попытки его осмысления.

Александр Васильевич Мосолов родился 11 августа 1900 г. в Киеве. Мать, урожденная Романова, была оперной певицей, отец юрист. По свидетельству И.Л.Андроникова, прослеживается отдаленное родство композитора с великим поэтом М.Ю.Лермонтовым по линии Арсеньевой, бабушки поэта. Александр Васильевич получил в семье хорошее воспитание и, помимо гимназического, домашнее образование. Он прекрасно играл на фортепиано, свободно владел немецким и французским языками. Атмосфера дома способствовала его развитию. После смерти отца, с пятилетнего возраста его воспитывал отчим — художник М.В.Леблан, незаурядные человеческие и творческие качества которого оказали большое влияние на будущего композитора. В доме бывали артисты, художники, писатели, музыканты. Близкими друзьями дома были писатель Гиляровский, композитор Глиэр. Мальчик Саша Мосолов гулял по лесу с историком Ключевским, который увлекательно рассказывал ему о Борисе Годунове.

В 1918 г. Мосолов уходит добровольцем на фронт гражданской войны в составе 1-го кавалерийского полка, переданного затем в состав дивизии Котовского. В боях он был тяжело контужен и после длительного лечения освобожден от воинской службы.

В 1922 г. Мосолова приняли в Московскую государственную консерваторию на композиторский и фортепианный факультеты, которую он с блеском окончил в 1925 г. по классу композиции Н.Я.Мясковского.

Сейчас все более проявляется интерес к “запретному” творчеству Мосолова 20-х годов. Оно не только “прощено”, а все выше поднимается его значительность и ценность. Но творчество композитора после 20-х, на период которых приходится 53 года его творческой жизни, неизвестно для широкой музыкальной общественности. Мосолов 50 — 70-х — другой Мосолов. “Как, почему, хуже, лучше!” — будут спорить музыковеды. Одни примут его в обеих ипостасях, как, скажем, принимают Пикассо, другие оставят свои симпатии только 20-х, третьи оценят его симфонические, камерные и другие сочинения, родившиеся из мощных истоков русской песенности и русской классики, глубинные связи с которым прослеживаются и в творчестве 20-х.

Мне посчастливилось быть живым свидетелем последнего десятилетия жизни А.В.Мосолова. Он был уже тяжело болен, но ни болезнь, ни возраст не заслоняли его необычайного обаяния. Он был прост и естествен. Чувство собственного достоинства, барственность, независимый, сильный характер в соединении с детской непосредственностью и эмоциональной импульсивностью очаровывали с первого взгляда. Жить ему было не легко, но он любил жизнь: радовался природе, женской красоте, дружескому общению, преданно любил животных, наслаждался едой, хорошей погодой, книгой. Однако внутренним глубоким смыслом его жизни было творчество. Он говорил в присущей ему парадоксальной манере: “Я не композитор, я — скромный участник гражданской войны, а музыка?... Я не могу ее не писать — это моя физиологическая потребность”. По его словам, произведение не давало ему покоя, интересовало его только в процессе создания. Потом он мало заботился о его судьбе, сохранности, небрежно вел хронологию, поэтому довольно трудно установить, сколько у него написано симфоний. Какие-то симфонии в 1929 г. он передал русскому тенору Радомскому, проживающему в США, сказав при этом: “Здесь они никому не нужны, покажи там дирижерам, может, они сыграют”. Сколько их, очевидно, не менее двух? Какова их судьба? Радомский в письме сообщил, что передал их дирижерам.

В 40—60-е им написано 5 симфоний (Пятая симфония е-moll закончена в 1965 г.), но ни одна из них не исполнялась. К 50-му оборвались творческие связи композитора с исполнителями. Пришли на сцену новые действующие люди. “Опальный” Мосолов не обладал пробивной хваткой и не попал в новую струю. После длительного периода симфонического творчества “в стол” (произведения заказывались, оплачивались, принимались Министерством культуры РСФСР, но не исполнялись) он вновь обращается к народному творчеству — пишет народные хоры, которые звучали и звучат до сих пор по радио и в концертах. В это же время замысливалась Пятая симфония. Это совпало с острым поворотом в личной жизни: тяжелое обострение болезни и... большая любовь, которая вызвала жажду жизни и необычайный подъем творческих сил. Пятая симфония была им написана “на одном дыхании”, оркестровка — за две недели! Для главной темы он выбрал запев поморской песни “Не знаты-то, не знат” в записи С.Кондратьевой.

Александр Васильевич волновался, не доверяя себе, предварительно показал ее своим друзьям, вызскательным композиторам — А.С.Абрамскому и Г.Н.Попову. Мы играли с Александром Васильевичем на двух роялях — я двумя руками, он подыгрывал одной правой (левой он играть уже не мог). Друзья в один голос сказали, что это его лучшая симфония. Затем мы играли ее в Союзе композиторов Д.Д.Шостаковичу, который тоже высоко оценил ее и сказал, что она должна быть непременно исполнена... Однако Мосолов продолжает ждать, хотя прошло уже 5 раз по три года, положенных по русской пословице на ожидание.

Музыка А.В.Мосолова всегда отражала время, главные лейттемы органично переходили в разную интерпретации из сочинения в сочинение. Пятая симфония является как бы итогом всего его творчества. Она классически ясна, с яркой, проникающей в сердце мелодикой, тематически развивается с характерной для Мосолова стремительной, страстной экспрессией, железной логикой. Трагизм 1-й части, сумрачные воспоминания 2-й заканчиваются настойчиво и неотступно утверждающимся финалом жизни и света и торжества радости.

Эта музыка нужна людям. Ее будут слушать и понимать, так как в ней бьется живое, полнокровное горячее человеческое сердце.

The musical score is written for a symphony orchestra. It consists of two systems of staves. The first system includes staves for Flute (FL.), Oboe (Ob.), Clarinet (Cl.), Bass Clarinet (Cl. basso), Bassoon (Fag.), Coronet (Cor.), Trumpet (Tr-be), Trombone (Tr-ni e Tuba), and strings (Archi). The second system includes staves for strings (Archi). The score is in 4/4 time. The first system has a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The second system has a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score features various musical notations including notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'ff' (fortissimo) and 'sf' (sforzando). There are also markings for 'a2 soli' (second solo) and '6' in a box.

The musical score is arranged in a standard orchestral format. The woodwind section (Picc., Fl., Ob., C.ingl., Cl., Cl. basso, Fag., C-fag.) and brass section (Cor., Tr-be, Tr-ni e Tuba) are in the upper half. The percussion section (Timp., P-tti, Cassa) is in the middle. The string section (Archi) is at the bottom. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. Dynamic markings such as pp (pianissimo), p (piano), and f (forte) are used throughout. Performance instructions like arco (bowed), pizz. (pizzicato), and senza sord. (without mutes) are also present. The string section at the bottom has multiple staves, with some parts marked arco and others pizz.

Detailed description of the musical score: The score is for measures 28 and 29. The woodwind section (Piccolo, Flute, Oboe, English Horn, Clarinet, Bass Clarinet, Bassoon, Contrabassoon) and the string section (Archi) play a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. The brass section (Cor Anglais, Trumpet, Trombone, Trumpet and Tuba) plays a more complex melodic line. The score is marked with '28' and '29' at the beginning of each measure, and 'cresc.' at the end of measure 29.
